From Pedals to Pastries: Café Angelica Becomes Los Baños' Favorite Cyclist Hangout

Los Baños, Laguna — What started as a pandemic passion project in 2020 has blossomed into a beloved community hub for cyclists and coffee lovers alike. Café Angelica, founded by biking enthusiast and culinary-trained entrepreneur Mito Ilagan, merges the energy of a bike shop with the cozy vibe of a café — creating the perfect pit stop along the main road of Los Baños.

"In the middle of the pandemic, I thought, bikes and coffee really go together," shared Ilagan. "Cyclists are always looking for a place to hang out after a ride. That's where the idea of combining a coffee shop and bike shop came in."

And the idea worked. Cyclists now flock to Café Angelica not just to tune up their bikes, but also to indulge in handcrafted coffee and their favorite post-ride treat: pastries. "Pastries are number one for cyclists," Ilagan said. "Sweets are part of the routine after biking. They come here for the coffee and stay for the pastries."

Ilagan isn't just a café owner — he's also a serious cyclist himself, having competed in several endurance events, including Ironman triathlons. But long before the races and rides, his first love was food. Though he studied culinary arts, Ilagan first completed a Management degree to support his family's business, only pursuing his passion for cooking once he graduated.

Launching a business during a pandemic wasn't easy. Café Angelica faced its share of struggles in understanding its market and learning how to advertise effectively. "You really have to fight for it," he said. "You need to offer something different. In this area of Los Baños, we're the only shop that combines a coffee shop and bike shop in one place."

Now, Café Angelica stands as a testament to resilience, creativity, and community. Whether you're a seasoned cyclist or just someone looking for great coffee and buko pie, Café Angelica welcomes you. Ride in. Chill out. Taste the difference. Visit Café Angelica today — where bikes meet brews. (Edjun Mariposque)

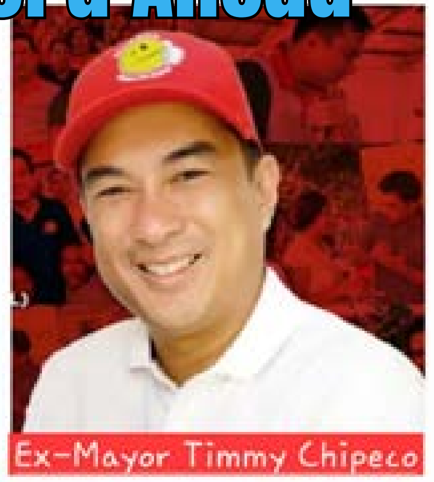
Calambeños Reject Call for Debate, Praise Mayor Ross Rizal's Track Record Ahead of 2025 Elections

Mayor Ross Rizal



Ex-Mayor Timmy Chipeco

As former Mayor Timmy Chipeco challenges incumbent Mayor Ross Rizal to a public debate ahead of the 2025 elections, majority of Calambeños have voiced strong opposition, saying that the people no longer need mere words—they want results.

"He's asking for a debate, but he's only good at speaking and lacks action. Enough is enough.

You've held Calamba for almost 2 decade—both in the LGU and in Congress—and all we saw were words, self-promotion, and personal interests," said a concerned citizen from Calamba.

Another resident shared, "Why debate? The people already know what's happening.

We don't need more talk; we need genuine care that people can actually feel.

Words are no longer enough. People today are smarter—when they get tired of empty promises, no amount of talking will help."

The current administration, led by Mayor Ross Rizal, Vice Mayor Totie Lazaro, and Congresswoman Cha Hernandez, has gained the trust and admiration of Calambeños across all age groups. Their leadership has been marked by visible progress—completing major infrastructure projects such as the Calamba Coliseum, the new Slaughterhouse, and the much-awaited hospital, which were left unfinished by previous administrations.

More recently, the city has seen continuous development, including the construction of a new dialysis center, public high schools in several barangays, housing projects, and many more initiatives that directly benefit residents for only a short period of 3 years.

Calamba has also earned numerous awards under Mayor Rizal's leadership—thanks to his tireless work ethic. Known for starting his day at 6 a.m. and even welcoming constituents in his home before heading to the office, Rizal's dedication stands in sharp contrast to former officials who are criticized for arriving late or being absent.

One more Calambeño expressed it simply: "We don't need a debate. What matters is what has been done in the past and what's being done now. Let the people decide. All we ask is respect."

As election season approaches, it seems that the people of Calamba are speaking clearly: actions speak louder than words.

MAY P20/ KILO NA NG BIGAS SA VISAYAS SIMULA NGAYONG MAYO- 1

Mayroon ng bente- pesos na bigas na mabibili sa Capitol Grounds, Cebu City simula ngayong araw ng paggawa, Mayo 1, 2025. Target mailunsad ang rice program sa buong bansa ng Department of Agriculture(DA).

Ayon sa Malacañang, walang halong pulitika sa paglulunsad ng 20 kada-kilo ng bigas, ito ay unang ipatutupad na sa Visayas.

Alinsunod sa direktiba ni Pangulong Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. na mabigyan ng de-kalidad at abot-kayang pagkain ang mga Pilipino, nakatakda nang simulan ng Department of Agriculture (D.A.) ang pilot implementation ng pagbebenta ng P20 per kilo sa rehiyon ng Visayas.

Ito ay inanunsyo ni D.A. Secretary Francisco Tiu Laurel Jr. nitong Miyerkules, Abril 23, matapos ang pakikipagpulong ni Pangulong Marcos sa 12 gobernador ng iba't ibang lalawigan sa Visayas sa Cebu Provincial Capitol.

"We launched it here (Cebu) because mas marami ngang nangangailangan sa mga regions na 'yon.

But, of course, ang eventual intention nitong programang ito — once we sort out all the issues logistically and para makita talaga how to operate it and launch it and manage it — nationwide ito eventually," saad ni Sec. Laurel.

"Our President has given the directive to the Department of Agriculture to formulate this to be sustainable and tuloy-tuloy hanggang 2028," dagdag ng Kalihim.

Ngunit marami ang nagsasabi na ito ay isang Political Gimmick ni PBBM dahil nagkaroon ng anunsyo kalahatian ng panahon ng pangangampanya para sa Eleksyon 2025.

Sa inyong palagay, ang paglulunsad ng bente pesos(P20) na bigas ay naayon nga ba sa sinasabi ng Pangulo na upang magkaroon ng maayos, murang halaga ng bigas at may maihahain na de-kalidad na kanin ang mga Pilipino.

("Mula po sa kaibuturan ng aking puso, taos-puso ang aking pasasalamat, una po sa Panginoon at sa Iglesia ni Cristo sa tiwalang inyong ipinagkaloob.

Lubos na gumagalang,

Mayor Ross Rizal")

"From the bottom of my heart, I express my deepest gratitude—first to the Lord, and to the Iglesia ni Cristo—for the trust you have given," Mayor Rizal said.

The message follows the decision of the Iglesia ni Cristo to endorse Mayor Rizal as their chosen candidate in the upcoming 2025 elections. This significant endorsement has strengthened his campaign and reaffirmed the confidence of a major religious community in his leadership.

KIKO PANGILINAN AT BAM AQUINO, MAINIT NA SINALUBONG SA PAKIL, LAGUNA

Pakil, Laguna – Mainit na tinanggap ng mga mamamayan ng Pakil, sa pangunguna ni Mayor Vince Soriano, ang pagbisita ng mga dating senador at kasalukuyang senatorial candidates na sina Francis "Kiko" Pangilinan at Paolo Benigno "Bam" Aquino IV. Ipinakilala at buong suporta silang inendorso ni Mayor Soriano sa harap ng kanilang mga kababayan.

Noong Abril 29, nakiisa si dating Senador Kiko Pangilinan sa pagdiriwang ng makulay na Turumba Festival, kung saan muling iginiit ang kanyang adbokasiya para sa food security. Binigyang-diin niya ang kahalagahan ng pagbaba ng presyo ng pagkain at pagsuporta sa mga lokal na magsasaka, na aniya'y susi sa pag-unlad hindi lamang ng bayan kundi ng buong bansa.

"Ipagpapatuloy natin ang pagsusulong sa mga polisiya na magbibigay suporta sa ating mga agricultural workers. Kabilang na rito ang ganap na implementasyon ng Sagip Saka Act," ani Pangilinan.

Dagdag pa niya, nais din niyang isulong ang programang "Libreng Almusal" para sa lahat ng mag-aaral mula preschool hanggang Grade 12, na layong tugunan ang kagutuman sa paaralan at itaas ang antas ng edukasyon.

"Mula pre-school hanggang Grade 12, dahil ang mga datos na kapag may programang libreng almusal ang mga eskwelahan ay mas mag-aaral ang mga bata, maganda ang performance at bumabagsak ang dropped-out rate, nananatili silang gmag-aaral," pahayag niya.

Samantala, dumalaw naman si dating Senador Bam Aquino sa bayan noong Mayo 2. Sa kanyang talumpati, binigyang-diin niya ang tagumpay ng Free College Education Law, na kanyang isinulong sa Senado. Ayon sa kanya, malaking tulong ito sa mga kabataang Pilipino, lalo na sa mga nagtapos mula sa mga State Universities and Colleges (SUCs), na ngayo'y mas pinapaboran na ng mga employer.

"Ngayon po, pagkatapos napasa ang batas natin, magtanong-taong kayo, iyong mga employer ang hinahanap na mga kabataan ay galing sa state universities. Hindi lang Ateneo, La Salle, UP, at UST, ang hinahanap nila. Ang hinahanap na ngayon, mga kabataan mula sa mga state university," ani Aquino.

Buong suporta rin ang ipinahayag ni Aquino sa planong pagtatayo ng sangay ng Polytechnic University of the Philippines (PUP) sa bayan ng Pakil. Nangako siyang tutulong upang maisakatuparan ito kung siya ay muling mahalal sa Senado.

"Napakalaking tulong ng PUP Pakil para mas mapalapit ang dekalidad na edukasyon sa mga estudyante ng Ikaapat na Distrito ng Laguna," dagdag niya.

Nagpahayag naman ng pasasalamat ang mga opisyal at kawani ng lokal na pamahalaan ng Pakil sa naging pagbisita nina Pangilinan at Aquino, na itinuturing nilang simbolo ng malasakit at pagbibigay-halaga sa kanilang komunidad.

LABAN PARA SA KATOTOHANAN: PNP NANGUNGUNA SA PAGLABAN SA FAKE NEWS

Bilang bahagi ng layunin ni Pangulong Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. para sa isang digitally responsible at ligtas na bansa, inilunsad ng Philippine National Police (PNP) ang "The War for Truth: A Consultative Forum at ang Joint Anti-Fake News Action Committee (JAFNAC)" noong Mayo 2, 2025, sa PNP Multi-Purpose Center, Camp Crame, Quezon City.

Ang forum ay dinaluhan ng mga eksperto sa komunikasyon, cybercrime investigators, at mga miyembro ng media upang talakayin ang mga banta ng maling impormasyon at fake news. Kasama sa mga nagsalita sa event sina Secretary Jay Ruiz ng Presidential Communications Office, Commodore Jay Tristan Tariela ng Philippine Coast Guard, veteranong mamamahayag na si Dave M. Veridiano, at Deputy Executive Director Mary Rose Magsaysay ng Cybercrime Investigation and Coordinating Center (CICC).

Kasama sa kaganapan ang pormal na paglunsad ng Joint Anti-Fake News Action Committee (JAFNAC) ng PNP— na layuning sugpuin ang maling impormasyon na nagdudulot ng pinsala sa mga institusyon at kaligtasan ng bansa.

Pinamumunuan ang komite ni PLTGEN Robert Rodriguez, Deputy Chief PNP for Operations, Vice Chairperson PBGEN Marvin Joe Saro, at binubuo ng mga pangunahing unit mula sa PNP tulad ng Anti-Cybercrime Group (ACG), Directorate for Operations, Directorate for Intelligence, Information Technology Management Service (ITMS), Office of the Chief PNP (OCPNP), Legal Service (LS), at Police Community Affairs and Development Group (PCADG).

Sa kanyang mensahe, sinabi ni PNP Chief Police General Rommel Francisco Marbil na mahalaga ang pagtutok sa mga digital na kasinungalingan. "Hindi lang tayo nakaharap sa misinformation. Ngayon, may tatlong uri ng kasinungalingan—malinformation, disinformation, at misinformation—na may malalim na epekto sa ating bansa," aniya. "Hindi ito mga simpleng pagkakamali; ito ay mga hakbang na ginawa para linlangin at paghiwalayin tayo."

Pinagtibay ni General Marbil ang pangako ng PNP na protektahan ang katotohanan—hindi sa pamamagitan ng pagsupil sa kalayaan ng pagpapahayag, kundi sa pagprotekta nito laban sa maling impormasyon. "Hindi natin pinipigilan ang kalayaan sa pagsasalita. Pinoprotektahan natin ito mula sa mga kasinungalingan," dagdag pa niya.

Inihayag ni General Marbil ang buong suporta sa JAFNAC, na inilalarawan nya bilang isang tawag sa tungkulin at isang hakbang upang protektahan ang demokrasya, tiwala ng publiko, at pambansang kapayapaan. Nilinaw niya na ang inisyatiba ay hindi para labanan ang kalayaan sa pagpapahayag kundi ay para labanan ang maling impormasyon. "Ang karapatan na magsalita ay hindi katumbas ng karapatang magtago ng katotohanan," ani Marbil.

Nanawagan siya sa lahat ng stakeholders na maging tagapagtanggol ng katotohanan at responsable sa komunikasyon: "Ang laban na ito ay kailangan nating harapin—at pagtagumpayan—hindi gamit ang armas, kundi ang pagiging mapagmatyag, may pananagutan at pagkakaisa. Dahil sa pagtatanggol sa katotohanan, ipinaglalaban natin ang tama. Sa pagprotekta sa katotohanan, pinoprotektahan natin ang ating mga kababayan."

Ang PNP ay patuloy na magsusulong ng katotohanan at responsableng paggamit ng digital na teknolohiya, alinsunod sa layunin ng Pangulo na magkaroon ng mas ligtas at mas maalam na bansa.

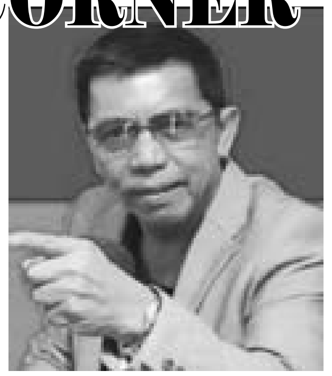
KARAGATAN NG PILIPINAS BANTAYAN AT IPAG LABAN



Bigay-todong ipinagmamalaki ni Senate Majority Leader Francis Tolentino ang pagkilala ng Google Maps sa terminong West Philippine Sea bilang isang mahalagang bahagi ng kasaysayan—isang patunay ng pagtanggap ng mundo sa teritoryo bilang bahagi ng soberanya ng Pilipinas ng mga nasasaklawan nitong karagatan.

Unang iniulat ang pagkilala ng Google Maps sa pangalang 'West Philippine Sea' bilang opisyal na pagtukoy sa bahagi ng karagatang sakop ng Pilipinas, partikular na sa bahaging sumasaklaw sa Scarborough Shoal o kilala rin bilang Panatag Shoal.

Para sa abogadong senador, na chairman ng Senate Special Committee on Maritime and Admiralty Zones, ang pagkilalang ito ay patunay na tama at makararungan ang hakbang, alinsunod sa Republic Act No. 12064 o Philippine Maritime Zones Law, na kinikilala na ngayon bilang Tolentino Law.

Sa bisa ng kanyang pinagsikapang batas, itinaguyod ni Senator Tol ang matibay na legal na batayan na umaayon sa prinsipyo ng international law, tulad ng United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS), na kanyang binigyang-diin bilang "hindi lamang sa loob ng ating bansa, kundi sa buong mundo."

"Atin ang West Philippine Sea.

At patuloy natin itong ipaglalaban, para sa bayan at sa susunod pang henerasyon," mensahe ni Senator Tol.
